

8:00 – 10:00 A.M. | PIXAR PIER AND PARADISE GARDENS PARK

- Head straight to Pixar Pier – Toy Story Midway Mania will get a high wait later in the day, so knock it out now, and then start working your way through the Pier and Paradise Gardens Park back towards The Little Mermaid
- These are all smaller rides that your little ones will love, and this area will be almost empty at this time of day

10:00 – 12:00 P.M. | GRIZZLY PEAK

- After you finish Little Mermaid, you might want some breakfast - if so, you can stop by the Cappucino Cart across the way for Joffrey's Coffee and breakfast burritos OR head to Smokejumper's Grill near our next ride (don't forget to mobile order)
- Jump on Soarin' next; it might already be up to a 30-minute wait, but it will stay there or higher for the rest of the day
- After Soarin', your little ones will be ready to get some wiggles out. You are near the best spot: Redwood Creek Challenge

12:00 – 1:30 P.M. | CARS LAND

- If you grabbed the late breakfast, you probably are not quite ready for lunch, so let's head to Cars Land
- Mater's and Luigi's are both great rides for younger ones and always have waits 25 minutes and under
- Near the Cozy Cone Motel, you will likely find meet and greets with your favorite vehicles from the Cars movie
- If the adults want to take turns using the Single Rider option on Radiator Springs Racers, it is the easiest/fastest way to get on without paying for an Individual Lightning Lane

1:30 – 3:30 P.M. | LUNCH AND AVENGERS CAMPUS

- San Fransokyo Square is a great place to grab lunch, as there is something for everyone
- After lunch, head over to Web Slingers and stick around to watch the Spider-Man show after

3:30 – 5:30 P.M. | HOLLYWOOD LAND

There are SO many non-ride options here that are must-dos: Animation Academy, Turtle Talk with Crush, Meet Ana and Elsa, Disney Jr. Dance Party, and watch Mickey's Philhar Magic!

EVENING MAGIC

- At this point, you have hit all of the main attractions that are kid-friendly
- You may want to revisit favorites, shop, have a dining reservation, or have an early evening at home
- IF you choose to stay for the nighttime entertainment, World of Color, be sure to grab a virtual queue at noon for the 9 p.m. showing
